[REDACTED] Received a request from Mr. D. F. McGillicuddy, Professional Staff Member, Senate Subcommittee on Preparedness Investigation, who called for the Counsel, Mr. James Kendall, for an informal briefing of the Committee staff on the current situation in Cuba. Advised that I would check the matter and be back in touch in the morning.

[REDACTED] At the request of the Congressman stopped by the Office of Representative Thomas B. Curtis (R., Mo.) and was advised by his Administrative Assistant William Horton that one of their constituents had recently returned from the Soviet Union where he observed certain things relating to missiles. Since the man has relatives in the Soviet Union he has requested the Congressman that in response on this matter, his name not be used to insure maximum protection for his relatives. He further requested that anyone contacting him mention the name Bill. [REDACTED] advises the individual was briefed before his trip overseas. They will contact him.
